Friends of the North Valley Public Library presents

2019 Chocolate and Authors

Mark your Calendars! Authors Hear a Who is the theme of the 2019 Chocolate & Authors night. Tickets and raffle tickets available at the Library desk and at the door on the night. Support your Library!

Seeking Treasures for Fundraising Dinner

The NVPL Foundation is holding its annual fundraising event A Novel Affair on Saturday, April 13 to raise funds to support Library programs and continued building renovations.

The Foundation is happily accepting donations of value for the Silent Auction including art work, antiques, or unique pieces. If you are interested in donating an item, please visit the Library or contact Donna Bainbridge at 406-370-4563.

Library ClosureMonday, February 18 for President's Day

Internet down: Library Up

During the CenturyLink outage in January much of the Valley was without internet but North Valley Public Library was still up and running and open to the public for use. Regular library users as well as first time business owners were able to make use of our Wi-Fi when theirs was down. We were pleased to welcome a business owner, who had been driving around the Valley looking for a signal, and was very relieved to find us.

Patron Review

David Sandford has been associated with the Library for many years, at one time working here. David reads a lot and you can tell from his reviews, he really knows his stuff!

The Maltese Falcon by Dashiell Hammett (1894-1961) is a mystery.

Originally serialized in the pulp magazine Black Mask in 1929, it was released in book form in 1930. Since then it has spawned several movie adaptions. Most notably the 1941 film noir directed by John Huston, starring Humphrey Bogart.

The movie was nominated for three Academy Awards, and is listed as one of the best movies of the 20th century by several critics and film groups. I feel everyone should see it at least once.

But as is often the case: THE BOOK IS BETTER!

This is one of my favorite novels, and has continued to be so through many readings over several years.

Dasheill Hammett drew on his past experience as a Pinkerton operative and is known for the realism of his writing. It's a fast paced story, that's also a fun read.

I recommend it for everyone no matter their age (as long as they read at a high school level or higher). Even if you're not into mysteries I think you'll like this one.

Both the book and movie are available at NVPL, and partner libraries also have several copies. There are also sound and eBook versions available.

Hours: Monday—Friday, 10 a.m. - 7 p.m. Saturday, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Sunday CLOSED 208 Main Street, STEVENSVILLE, MT

The Great Montana Read

Do you have a favorite book from The Great Montana Read? If you have not read them all then be sure to visit the Montana Room located in the North Valley Public Library and check out the authors you missed.

The top five books were:

- 1. Perma Red by Debra Magpie Earling
- 2. A River Runs Through It by Norman Maclean
- 3. This House of Sky by Ivan Doig
- 4. Blind Your Ponies by Stanley Gordon West
- 5. Fools Crow by James Welch

Seven volunteer judges independently identified their top 25 best-loved works of fiction, where the author or book's content had firm connections to Montana.

In all, 31 books were named. Judges' selections were compiled into the top 20 list which features books published within an 80 year time span.

Other books in the top 20 were:

The Big Sky, A.B. Guthrie

Winter Wheat, Mildred Walker

Winter in the Blood, James Welch

The Miseducation of Cameron Post, Emily Danforth

Legends of the Fall, Jim Harrison

The Surrounded, D'Arcy McNickle

The Ploughman, Kim Zupan

The Last Good Kiss, James Crumley

English Creek, Ivan Doig

Canada, Richard Ford

Fourth of July Creek, Smith Henderson

Hattie Big Sky, Kirby Larson

Letters from Yellowstone, Diane Smith

Last Bus to Wisdom, Ivan Doig

A Yellow Raft in Blue Water, Michael Dorris

The Great Montana Read is an exciting collaboration, encouraging conversation and celebration around the Treasure State's rich literary tradition and formed part of the nationwide search for America's best-loved novel on the Great American Read (an effort sponsored by PBS). Voting has closed for 2018's best loved book.

Annika Recommends:

Librarian of Auschwitz by Antonio Iturbe

Based on the experience of real-life Auschwitz prisoner Dita Kraus, this is the incredible story of a girl who risked her life to keep the magic of books alive during the Holocaust.

Fourteen-year-old Dita is one of the many imprisoned by the Nazis at Auschwitz. Taken, along with her mother and father, from the Terezín ghetto in Prague, Dita is adjusting to the constant terror that is life in the camp. When Jewish leader Freddy Hirsch asks Dita to take charge of the eight precious volumes the prisoners have managed to sneak past the guards, she agrees. And so Dita becomes the librarian of Auschwitz.

*This book is for ages 13 & up.

Kid's Book Review: Kiley J., age 14

Max by Jennifer Li ShotzThis books showed much more emotion and explained events a lot more than the movie. My favorite characters were the main characters, Justin and Max.

Early Literacy Tip for Babies: Playing

At Home – When you're playing with your baby, have fun using different noises for toys, like trucks, baby dolls, or animals. Hearing different noises and experiencing various pitches, tones, and volumes helps your baby develop the basics of language.

On the Go – A simple game of peek-a-boo while grocery shopping can have a big impact. Playing helps babies become aware of their bodies, increases curiosity, develops a sense of humor, and creates brain connections for future learning.
